

- 1) Map for Nonprofits -- based in MN but info that crosses state lines. Their "Free Management Library" is a huge treasure of information.
<http://www.mapfornonprofits.org/>
- 2) CompassPoint -- their Resource Directory named "Nonprofit Genie" is an excellent resource for FAQ's.
<http://www.compasspoint.org/>
- 3) Blue Avocado -- a spin-off from the CompassPoint site. It's now a web newsletter with an excellent "Board Cafe" column. You can read it on-line or subscribe.

- 4) Nonprofit Center -- Tacoma-area based but work across Washington. Good seminars, workshops and consulting.
<http://www.npcenter.org/>
- 5) Board Source -- good published materials, mostly targeted at Board members. Good "Ask an Expert" section on web site.
<http://www.boardsource.org/>
- 6) The Foundation Center -- lots of good info about grant and proposal writing as well as a directory of foundations.
<http://foundationcenter.org/>
- 7) Idealist.org -- general info about lots of aspects of nonprofits, volunteers and activism. Their "Resources" section is the most relevant.
<http://www.idealists.org/en/resources.html>
- 8) GrantStation -- well indexed source of available grants. Free e-mail grant listings by subscription as well.
<http://www.grantstation.com/>
- 9) TechSoup -- their tag line is "The Technology Place for Nonprofits". They administer the Microsoft Free Software for Nonprofits Program as well as other software distribution. Also good resource for tech-related info.
